We can bring a TRAINING OF TRAINERS WORKSHOP to your area

GOALS & OBJECTIVES: To train people to work effectively for Safe, Disciplined and Drug-Free Schools, and in other settings (treatment, probation, prisons, community, organizations). You will learn to:

GOALS & OBJECTIVES:

To train people to work effectively for Safe, Disciplined and Drug-Free Schools, and in other settings (treatment, probation, prisons, community, organizations). You will learn to:

● Implement a successful research-based, process oriented life skills program for schools and other settings, that uses cognitive, affective, visual, auditory and kinesthetic modalities to maximize learning.

● Identify those communications that lead to breakdowns and conflicts, and transform them into powerful resources for effective communications and positive relationships.

● Empower students, parents, community and other clients you work with to co-create their training, making it appropriate for any group regardless of age, gender and culture.

RESULTS: SIS research in schools, treatment, probation, detention and prison settings shows significant or highly significant reductions in alcohol/drug related school suspensions, juvenile criminal offenses, alienation/normlessness, disempowering communications/behaviors and leaving treatment against medical advice, and significant or highly significant increases in empowering communications/behaviors, conflict management, self-esteem, willingness to implement constructive decisions in difficult situations, quality of family and group life.

MATERIALS: Participants will receive the SAY IT STRAIGHT Trainer Manual and samples of SIS Workbooks for students and adults. Three videotapes, SIS in the Classroom, SIS Student Support Groups and SIS Parent-Community Series will be available for purchase at the Workshop.

SIS training is a well thought out program for improving the psychological health of people of all ages.

Virginia Satir, Pioneer Family Therapist and Author

After being in the field of prevention for over 10 years, I realized that this training brought my skills and knowledge base to a higher Level. Concrete solutions complex problems is truly the theme to this training. I will be forever grateful.

Janet Laning, Center for Student Assistance, Coordinator, Colorado

SIS gives me a powerful tool to work with youth.

Bart Stinson, Deputy Sheriff, California

SIS goes beyond drug abuse. It's about life.

Jim Craig, M. Ed. Adolescent Therapist. Texas

Powerful, simple, effective.

John Hughes, M.S.W., Drug Education Director, Washington

SIS- a program that truly prevents, prepares, empowers.

Bob Wickline, Teacher, K-5, Communication Consultant, WA

Many of our students have been helped by SIS. Parents indicated there is a long-lasting change in attitude toward peer pressure to use drugs.

Jean Cate, Drug Education Director, Oklahoma

A must for anyone interested in prevention and sustained recovery.

Donna Woods, Director SE, Governor's Commission for a Drug Free Indiana

TRAINEE AGREEMENT WITH THE SAY IT STRAIGHT FOUNDATION

I will conduct Say It Straight Training consistent with the training I received from the Foundation, that is, I will strive to enhance the self-esteem and communication skills of the people I work with. When doing SIS training with students, I will obtain parental/guardian consent and student assent for voluntary participation, unless the training is part of a school curriculum that does not require such permission. After SIS training, I will administer an anonymous questionnaire to get feedback. I will not train SIS Trainers until I am certified as a Master SIS Trainer.

To become a Certified SIS Trainer or a Master SIS Trainer I will follow specific guidelines from the Say It Straight Foundation as given on <www.savitstraight.org>.
